The Paramount-Burton Holmes release for January 23rd, is "Memories of Old Malacca." Sea-faring men told marvelous tales of Old Malacca; in childhood we have followed many a pirate or highly adventurous sailor through the Straits, and into pirate-haunted harbors. Mr. Holmes does not introduce you to any pirates, as they no longer exist, but Malacca is just as beautiful, just as interesting and just as quaint and characteristic as in the days of old. You find Chinese, Arabs, Tamils, - in fact, all sorts of interesting people, diving and swimming, driving their queer carts drawn by curious cattle, odd restaurants, unusual homes and costumes and customs. Withal, it is a most unusual voyage to most unusual and exceedingly interesting places.
